Your disgrace it seems to be forever as your image of a pure woman vanishes Charming and beauty are not part of you anymore Temptation and obsession have taken possession of you Ripping any trace, any sign of love, making you weak, you are losing your honor as a woman (forever)
Look at you Pathetic, disgusting, aren't you ashamed of yourself?
what are you going to do?
Dreaming all this years, about your ambition will be your step for your next nightmare Spit spit spit your lies cause we can see the fucking beast you have inside Spit spit spit your lies cause I can see the fucking beast you have inside
This consumption, this damnation, has taken your next life directly where your sins will turn Into torture for your life in death, Fallen dreams, fire burning inside of you Your only struggle is your path the same shit of all the time
It's ALL YOUR FAULT!
All of your lies is gonna be your regret for your next damn life
This consumption will be your worst enemy, you killed your hope to live so don't fuck with me
