Unholy slumber on the night of your demise
As countless bloody memories come streaming through your eyes
Come to my haunted house - I'll give you what you crave
You're only half - way dead with one foot in your grave

[Chorus]

You're gonna die screaming! SCREAMING!
You're gonna die screaming! SCREAMING!
You're gonna die screaming! SCREAMING!
Screaming in the night

The shock upon your face betrays your grim surprise
Your doom is playing out as I've so often fantasized
You must have known that your deceitful life would end this way
I stand above you laughing on your execution day

[Chorus]

You're gonna die screaming! SCREAMING!
You're gonna die screaming! SCREAMING!
You're gonna die screaming! SCREAMING!
Screaming in the night

You can't run and don't try to hide
There's no way in hell you'll escape with your life
Wake up my darling your nightmare's coming true
And you'll die screaming in the night when we come for you

A choir of rotting angels singing haunting requiems
I see her in the fog as I go walking through the graveyard
My mind replays so many fright-nights come and gone
I'm covered in your blood, I've waited for this for so long

Now I lay thee down to rest, your visage twisted in distress
Your broken corpse is fucking dead and boring me
My darkest fantasies are manifesting in the flesh

I seal in bloody death this bitter love undying

Unholy rapture of the most horrific kind I'm finally free now that you've met up with my chainsaw
I carved a pentagram into your soft white skin
And spilled your guts upon our hallowed haunting grounds

[Chorus]
You're gonna die screaming! SCREAMING!
You're gonna die screaming! SCREAMING!
You're gonna die screaming! SCREAMING!
Screaming in the night

You can't run and don't try to hide
There's no way in hell you'll escape with your life
Wake up my darling your nightmare's coming true
And you'll die screaming in the night when we come for
you

You can't run and don't try to hide
There's no way in hell you'll escape with your life
Wake up my darling your nightmare's coming true
And you'll die screaming in the night when we come for
you
