I feel it coming down from a far off place
I need assistance with a change of pace
In my heart now, there's an empty space
But you can change it, bring your heart my way

I've been through this alone before, I know no other way
Remnants of a life with you remain

Don't be alarmed now, I'm not grateful
For all you're given, it's so much bullshit
Run over wisdom, headed straight for deceit
It's rather sad now, what you've done to me

I've been through this alone before, I know no other
way
I wish that I could have the heart to stay
Losing what we started for, destroyed everything
Remnants of a life with you remain

I don't belong here, take me far away
But if you change now, bring your heart my way

I've been through this alone before, I know no other
way
I wish that I could have the heart to stay
Losing what we started for, destroyed everything
Remnants of a life with you remain

I've been through this alone before, I know no other
way
Remnants of a life with you remain
