Left me standin' here
On this lonely street to cry

This is a Living Legends, Justice League
Definitive Jux production
Brought to you by 9th Wonder and Murs

What up though? Still givin' a fuck so Open up your changer and get ready to dump those Disc of the dudes that be soundin' the same
They get up on TV, steady clownin' for fame

Disrespectin' ancestors that was bound in them chains
But I'm around in the game, so thangs is bound to change
I'm tryin to walk that thin line between intelligence and ignorance
Have a little fun while makin' music of significance

A nemesis to niggaz just bumpin' they gums
I give a fuck where you from, it's where your heart at bitch
You gon' bite little doggie or just bark that shit?
A slave to the rhythm, 9th spark that whip

'Cause my heart can't quit, I got something to say
'Cause these niggaz wanna act NWA
Niggaz wit' artillery and nothin' to spray
Just some non right assholes with nothin' to say

That's right motherfuckas
Old salty ass, sideways ass motherfuckas
Y'all fucked up now, huh? Murs, get 'em

I'm from where we leaving, running and we hop outta cars
Jump out and beat you down in some new All stars
No stars and stripes, just bars and pipes
And niggaz just start shootin', they too hard to fight

I'm scarred for life and charge this mic with bars of fright

Dare any one of you frauds to bite
I'm raw as life with loss of wife and causin' strife
Spittin' sharp wit like I floss with knives

Not contrived or conceited on your radio repeated
I'm elitist and I leave this Red Hot like Kiedis
I'm a Californicator and a street narrator Steady runnin' rappers down until they meet their maker

Concrete caretaker to these weak imitators
They a screech to my Slater, piece of beef to a gator
Or the heat versus Lakers, I'ma speak to ya later
And let 9th take me out with techniques and a fader

What's wrong wit y'all man?
The fuck is y'all thinkin' bout?
Damn, them motherfuckas is lame man
Get ya shit right man

I'm from the home of Double K, nothin' but trouble gang
KWS's, LTS's, OFA's
And every other crew that used to rack cans and spray
And mob the RUD before the MTA

So don't hate what I say or talk down when I bust mine
Tryin' to make some green like the Culver city bus line
I'm unsigned and hyped, dump mines on site
This Living Legend gang what you punks rhymin' like

I combine with 9th, sickest with these beats
I mean so sick like he's forgettin' to eat
A hard man to take down like Michael Vick on his feet
And anybody chose me they was thinkin' defeat

I'ma spit with this heat until I get my credit
I'm a verbal martial artist like I'm signed to Shady Records
And you bitches best respect it or I will destroy you Have your whole crew screamin' out, "You're my boy blue"
