(opening)

I wanna hear your voice but i don't want you to call I wanna see you girl but not see you at all I wanna make up, but i still wanna fight
I wanted to break up but it just don't feel right

I hate you, you hate me, but still cant escape we and all the bullshit we been going through lately heart broke, lovestruck telling y'all it aint me life without you girl it something that i cant see I aint gon lie, and say i don't get lonely but its only so much, i can kick it with the hommies somebody told me you already moved on I broke up with you, you aint supposed to get your groove on
Not now, at least wait a couple weeks Got me looking like a chump with my business in the streets
Been a couple weeks but it feel like you still there No matter how im clean im still finding your hair With some shit you forgot or im standing in that spot You came so hard i didn't think that you would stop but quiet as a step i know you miss me just a little Wash the sheets when you left but still smell you on my pillow

(CHORUS)2x

And everything i do, it reminds me of you and everything i see it reminds me of we and every time i lust it reminds me of us Girl i wanna stay together cuz i hate breaking up

You didn't call me last night
What you trying to be strong?
Well you call yourself stupid when you finally hear this song
'Cuz i would've took you back
I was waiting to a fact All you had to do was holla girl i would've just collapse and fell into a trap and started to relapse and yo ass never called so it just never happen now im thinking Jazmin, Tonya, Sherane...

Some exes i could call that will probably ease the pain i try to follow through but i wind up calling you hanging up before a ring girl its really all on you but you wanna get into it make me mad push my buttons got us tripping over little stuff that don't mean nothing Im sick of the suffering, the fightin, the fussin what happened to the love and the late night discussions
'Bout children and family, the future, the planning Now its all over cuz u couldn't understand me

(CHORUS)2x

Started missing you again last night till i remembered all the reasons that your ass loved to fight
its like dude... i really wanted this to work but you had to get your shit together first and whats worst i really wanted you to stay but i needed u to leave cuz we was fighting everyday Alright not everyday, i know that that's a lie don't it We was suppose to be companions
We was more like opponents
Don't this song wanna make you do one more time?
Could i still be the only dude thats on your mind?
im too proud to beg but im hopin that you not i would take you back quick girl without a second thought but im caught up in my pride and i cant make the call Didn't wanna break up just a break that's all Its been a long time i know i probably should have left you cuz your the only woman that i wanna sleep next to

(CHORUS)2x

You say you sick of me and i say im sick of you but we crazy bout each other girl what we gon do?
Said i needed you to leave but i hate to see you go Can't make up my mind girl i just don't know I wanna make this work but im sick of the struggle Girl, what i gotta do to make you realize i love you I aint gonna lie sometimes i just don't feel you But find another man and i just might kill you...
