[Murs] Ay, you don't get enough of yelling at me man Say brother, you gon' have to keep that down! [9th Wonder] Man look man, we gotta do this record man so, so, what you gon' cuz? [Murs] I'ma rap man! [9th Wonder] Rap about what?! [Murs] Oh God, Sweet Lord {*Beat begins*} [Murs talking] Yeah, haha what up though? It's Murs, 9th Wonder, Sweet Lord Me amigos, my people, welcome y'all to the Hip Hop pizza party The largest ice-cream social extravaganza in Hip Hop history Hahahahaha... look [Murs rapping] Praise him name, two kids in the game Came back a third time to serve y'all 'gain And it's sweeter than sugarcane, rough as a bullet stain Good music and balance is what we bring to the game So amen, let the fun begin And before it all ends, you say we done it again It's me and him, we come with that blend That Cali-lina sound make you run to a friend Like "Say brother, you heard that Murs and 9th?" The beats just bang and the verse is so tight Ain't nothing like that been said on the mic No drugs, no guns cause we just not the type We get you ready for life, we get you ready for love Cause it's all about moving, never holding a grudge Forgive and forget, can't live with regret Hoping God make a way before we run out of breath Hit with all I got left, I'ma make it all right Just spit that positive music and continue to fight Bring the truth to the light, then the light to the dark Until you sucker emcees meet us out in the park We got that after school special that is guaranteed to test you With morals to the story so you know we gonna bless you You, you, and your girlfriend Cause if this ain't a gem then the world don't spin And if the world don't turn then the sun don't burn Then the grass don't grow and the kids don't learn So get smart, we got ninety-nine songs But if we put 'em all on, I be rhyming too long I hear you talking, I hear you fools Cause we left Cool Edit and switched to Pro Tools 9th chopping breaks, me breaking rules So daimn fresh, people say that it's cool They say it's too short, they don't want it to end But it wouldn't be perfect if it wasn't a ten And friends, it's been a pleasure thus far Murs and 9th Wonder and the third one's a charm
