(Yesterday I)
(And Today I'm)
(Yesterday I)
(And Today I'm)

[Murs:]

I ain't, I ain't, I ain't getting out of bed today
9 to 5 to survive, there's gotta be a better way
Waking up early to punch in the clock
How I look, a grown man with my lunch in a box
But my kids need socks and shoes, I'm walking through The office, boss yelling "Who you talkin to?"
Don't you know on the streets I woulda- nevermind
The past is the past, I gotta leave it behind
But man, back on the block I was a bonafide hustler
Spot popping off until the police rushed us
Handcuffed us, I thought I was gone
Coulda cried, thinking I'd miss my son being born
But I was blessed, beat the case, now I'm tryna reform
But these white folks, make it so hard to move on You gotta, jump through hoops, anger management coups
But the fact I'm still standing here today is proof that...

[Chorus:]

(Yesterday I) Felt the most hated
I thought I couldn't take it, they said I couldn't make it
(And today I'm) Feelin' brand new
I got nothin' to lose, I'm bout to make moves
(Yesterday I) Felt the most hated
I thought I couldn't take it, I fought until I made it
(And today I'm) Feelin' brand new
I got nothin' to lose, get out my way move

[Murs:]

On to the next, it was all about sex
When I first met my little baby girl Anette Shee was standing at the bus stop, sucking on a lolly-pop
Eyes collard green, lean, thicker then a pork chop Stop- cause I don't eat swine
But this girl was so divine that I had to make her mine

Called her phone a few times, she thought I was funny
Fell for it like a dummy, it was all for the money
Gyeah... growing up in the hood
You would think I'd understand, but I never understood Why she really came around, when my dough wasn't good
Now you could call it puppy love cause I got dogged out
Now on all my note books I got her name crossed out
But she lost out, I just lost profit, when she left me in cold
Heart broke like like my pockets and...

[Chorus]

[Murs:]

You know them days you just got the blues
All stressed and depressed from just watchin the news
No matter what good you do it seems you always get screwed
Got you caught up in your feelings now you off in the mood
Shake that attitude and do what you can
Set a couple goals follow through with your plans
Time waits for no man and tomorrows not promised
So if she's still alive shoot a call to your momma
Cause the fighting and the drama, it's just not worth it
Nobodys perfect, ain't none of us worthless
We all got a place, and we all got a purpose
Now I'm not taking y'all to sunday service
But ya clap your hands as you stand up and work it Like your grandmama used to do that fan down at worship
Spread it, pop it, and wave it in my face Put your hands around your waist, let me ride to the bass like...

[Chorus]
