It took sometime
To see who you've really been
A perfect storm
I got caught up in your winds

Tossed me 'round
And glue me back again
Held me for so long
I woke today
The sun was breaking
And all your clouds are gone

[Chorus:]
I thought about it
What a game you played
Yes, I knew I had seen these wounds before
I thought about it
Guess I learned to leave
When it's love there ain't no keeping score

Now where you are
Don't really matter to me
Keep moving on
I've seen all I need to see

You sow those words
And all those promises
I thought that they were mine

Told myself that this was happening
So told myself a lie

[Chorus]

I thought about it... yeah...
I thought about it... yeah...

When somebody plays your heart
The way you have played with mine
Don't come calling for my sympathy
There's none here to find

[Chorus]

I thought about it... yeah...

I thought about it... yeah...
