Down on my knees down on my face
You just say its ok
So many days ive thrown away
You just say its ok
I dont think i could ever repay
Your perfect grace, but its ok

Its ok, Its ok
Its ok, Its ok
Youve become my embrace
Just tell me its ok

Your precious words intoxicate
A heart that aches; its ok
You dont recall my past mistakes
You just say its ok
The human mind cant calculate
Your perfect grace, but its ok

Even though youve seen a thousand times
Ive let you down
Youre always there if i should call your name
Youre unashamed, unashamed
