The crowds walk by
And I'm falling in Everyone's invisible
But it's just pretend

(chorus)
And we all freaked out
What a shame
When only tears know how to remind us we all break
the same
We all break the same
And we all break the same

Everything we've been
Could be our demise
It's the sticks and stones that wear us down
That often save our lives

(chorus)

We're different stars tonight
We somehow fade the same
And all the tears we cry
Tell us we're made the same

And when we fall aside
Lets hope we fall in place
We built our different lives
But they all break the same

Break the same
We all do
We all break the same

(chorus)

And we all freaked out- what a shame (2x)

We all break the same (2x)
We all do

We all break the same
We all , we all break the same

It's different for a different heart and different souls and different parts

We all, we all break the same
We all break the same (x6)
