For a land of beauty
Where it's pretty and neat
There's a whole lotta ugly
Up and down the street
An ugly boy
An ugly girl
In an ugly home
There's not much pretty
Where the ugly roams
An ugly house falling down
So pretty you think
With ugly people washing
Dishes
In the kitchen sink
The scene is sad maybe tearful
But it still needs love
There's still warmth and Kindness
Shining down from above
Well, there's a whole lotta
People
All around the world
And there's at least one love
For every boy or girl
The majorities ugly though I
Don't know why
Every ugly has some pretty in
It's own little eye
What's ugly to you might be
Pretty to me
So I keep my eyes open to see
What I can see
I see through a bottle
To make it more clear
There's a whole lotta ugly
But the pretty's still there
Chorus:
Whole lotta ugly
Ugly people need love too.
No rest for the ugly
What's an ugly one to do
Ugly to the east

And ugly to the west
And I've ran from ugly
I must confess
I've seen ugly - seen pretty
Seen rich - seen poor
And ugly to tough
It knocks you to the floor
The ugly don't care
They live and they walk
And I'll bet your last dollar
That your one to talk
See the uglies' in charge
And that's no mistake
So just sit yourself down
By your ugly date
(chorus:)
Pretty to me
So I keep my eyes open to see
What I can see
(chorus
