"The Party Song"

We're ready for the party
Everyone's coming along
We're ready for the party
So let's all sing a song
There are peanuts and crisps
And biscuits and buns
Lemonade
And orange juice
Pizzas and pies
And a great big huge enormous cake!
And I've got my big surprise
What about chocolate or strawberry ice?
Would you like some spaghetti or rice?
Have a cookie! Have a bun!
Here are some peanuts! Let's have fun!
I'm having clocks, they're very nice
I'm eating them all and I don't want a piece
Of the great big huge enormous cake!
But wait for my big surprise!
