In the darkest nights
I can hear the voices warning me
Fire through the skies
Ignite the flames of Hell, our destiny
Fighting this endless war
Searching to find the door to free our souls
Giving us back all the hope we once held
Forgiving no one's sins
Cries from Hell, in terror, calling me
Lurking in the wind
Shadows of our deadliest enemy
Fighting to end this war
Praying to find one door to free our souls
Giving us all back the hope we once held
Unlock the mystery
Again the night is haunting me
One hope is all that's driving me on
Leading me on, it shows me the way
To not be afraid anymore
Fighting to end this war

Praying to find one door to free our souls

Giving us all back the hope we once held

Unlock the mystery

Again the night is haunting me

One hope is all that's driving me on

Leading me on, it shows me the way

To not be afraid anymore
