Everyone's a passenger tonight,
Just another accident,
Well on the freeway of this life.
We're driving on and on, and on, and on.
We're driving on and on and on-
I'll remember this night when you're gone.
You surrender your heart,
I surrender every dream,
Every weapon you've got,
Every secret that I keep,
You can fight this all you want.
But tonight we lost it.
Just another surgery tonight,
Well if you amputate the loneliness,
Let anesthesia dim the lights.
So dream on, and on and on and on.
So dream on and on
And I'll remember your eyes-
When you're gone,
You surrender your heart,
I surrender every dream,

Every weapon you've got,
Every secret that I keep,
You can fight this all you want,
But tonight we lost it~
I watch you in your sleep
'Cos tonight the light's we've made~
You can fight this all you want,
But tonight we lost it.
~oooh~
Sparks against the railing,
Distant phantoms wailing.
Through the windshield sailing
With these airbags failing.
Now
You surrender your heart,
I surrender every dream,
Every weapon you've got,
Every secret that I keep,
You can fight this all you want,
But tonight we lost our way.
As I watch you in your sleep,
We can fight this all you want,
But tonight we lost our way,
But tonight we lost our way,
But tonight we lost our way.
