The the world is ugly,
But you're beautiful to me.
Are you thinking of me?
like im thinking of you

I would say im sorry
but i really need to go.

I just wanted you to know
That the world is ugly,
But you're beautiful to me.

Are you thinking of me?
Are you thinking of him?

You could say your sorry
but i think you both should go
I just wanted you to know.

There's an angel in my eye
And theres a burden in my eyes
I could get a new start
But i rather learn not try
I could find a new place
Maybe no one knows my name
But i think its just the thing
Oh are you happy now
Now that you got
What you came for
Are you
Are you happy now
Now that you got
What you came for
Are you happy now?
Now that you got what you came for
Are you haaappppyyy
Now!
Are you happy now?
Now that you got what you came for.
