

My Epiphany "Perfect Fit"

Instant connections always get it right Open the door and step inside come on in and have no fear there are no bears or tigers in here just 2 cups of coffee and my stage fright conspiring to keep me up all night When i have dreams but don't sleep it makes the days feel like weeks If everything stops today i think we would just start again so i don't worry at all...i will find you and then watch us fall in love as we do it all over again so i don't worry at all, every start was once an end But there is no end to this i think it is infinite and i have no regrets, its the perfect fit for me the stars ownt lie to you, the stars never lied to you its just the lights that do, boy those lights sure do If everything stopped today, i think we would just start again
So i don't worry at all I will find you and then Watch us fall in love
As we do it all over again
I don't worry at all
Every start was once an end (If everything stopped today)
But there is no end to this
(i think we would just start again)
i think it is infinite
(So i don't worry at all)
and i have no regrets, (Watch us fall in love)
its the perfect fit for me
(As we do it all over again)
the stars ownt lie to you,
(I don't worry at all)
the stars never lied to you (Every start was once an end)
its just the lights that do, boy those lights sure do the stars won't lie to you
