

My Friend Steve "Always The Way"

Man that joke was funny, maybe not but I depend on you
That I might eat this lousy meal all alone always Wailing on a dinner date that smiles at me from miles away
Man she's looking pretty don't you say
That's always the way with her
That's always the way
That's always the way with her
The way with her, the way with her Tapped out but well intended with his new one I befriended
I don't think she's gonna go my way
Still I'll drive for hours to fall victim to her powers
Eat my remains I don't care
You've got some pretty on your face
