

My Getaway "Hush Hush"

Hold back your tears, don't waste your breath on me. I don't deserve this anymore. just close your eyes and everything will be alright. I'm just a memory.

fall asleep with me with your hands over your face it's all a dream.

just take some time and forget everything I've said... it's all a lie. just remember this is the last time you get to say goodbye.

fall asleep with me with your hands over your face it's all a dream. put your hands around my throat and choke away all that's left of me.

hush hush, she told me that she loved me.
hush hush, then why did she leave me.

just close your eyes...
