This town's not big enough for the both of us and I'm sick of this place so I'll leave it first. regrets, not at all, the slightest bit and I can't wait to get out of this place.

this city never sleeps at all and these days are all the same and I'm just waiting for a change.

these streets are lined with faces that I've seen over and over again. their eyes are tired from the lack of sleep. just hold onto what you have and please don't forget me.

tried to make this last but it don't stand a chance, tried to make this last...

this mind of mine is holding on goodbye. I leave tonight, I leave tonight.
