

My Glorious "If You Break (That's Alright)"

Visit "If You Break \(That's Alright\)" on MotoLyrics.com

You are a fighter from what I hear
Wearing a pretty boy face on a heart of fear
Try to hide it but I'm gonna find it someday

And do you think I would love you still
If you were poor or small or hurting or I'll
No one's at their best all the time
Certainly not I

If you break that's alright
We are all broken inside
It's the weak who find the way
Join the leper join the lame
We are all the same
Desperate to be saved

You entertain everywhere you go
You have a joke and a laugh wherever you show
Nevermind that bleeding heart in your chest

D'ya think I love you cause you make me smile
D'ya think I need you to make me laugh once in a while Smile baby smile but only if your heart is smiling too
Let it smile for you

If you break that's alright
We are all broken inside
It's the weak who find the way
Join the leper join the lame
We are all the same
Desperate to be saved

We are all the same
We're all the same
We're all desperate to be saved
