

My Glorious "Under The Water"

Visit "Under The Water" on MotoLyrics.com

My head is still, my shoulders tight
But don't you look under the water
Under the water
I carry a smile I stole sometime
I lost mine under the water
Under the water of dreams

Where I try but I fail to stand
Under the water

My eyes can see, it's bright up here
So different than under the water
Under the water
You look pretty on the surface
Look happy for a while
While you're all tangled up
Under the water
Under the water of dreams

Where I try but I fail to stand

And I try
Do I ever try
But I fail to stand
But I fail to stand
And I talk to you
As if I were free
As if I were strong
As if I were clean
What I thought was true
What once held me here
Is growing dark and hazy now
As it disappears
Under the water
