I'm sorry for calling
To leave this message
You probably got the first one

My face was hypnotized
From the first time you arrived
Impressions gone up in smoke
I wondered if you'd come over here

Custom galleries
Full of pictured things
Like your picture-perfect make-up
To catch the attention
You caught long ago
I wish it could begin now
But we're miles from starting out

So what are you really after?
This time i know what you're thinking of
