"Dragonhide"

Are you aware of my plan: enter time, ready, kill Ready my turn, offer my warm cry, line up my bloody time
And are you ready for what I can do to you Forget what I have said, watch what I do
In my head, my hands on your neck and I'll pull you to The ground
I'll kick and throw you around, but I'm frozen to this

Spot

Shut your mouth, like a dragon-trap wrapped around your Fingernails [5x]

When my eyes are fixed in you there's no telling what I Could do
I can turn you to dragon-hide or make you a grain of sand
And I let you fall and crush you like an ant
Or place you in my tongue and swallow
