"Frankie Wants To Be Alone"

His name is Frankie, likes to drink green tea
And I noticed him, when I was 16
We discussed about Christy
She was the goddess to me

He knows who is Tim, but not closed to him
Though they both like film, they have different dreams
Frankie wants to be lonely,
He needs no one to agree

He walks alone in school, no one think he is cool.
He never studies hard, but he always gets high mark.
People think he's so strange, but he doesn't wanna
change.
All he need is daydreaming.
No one really know his thinking.

He walks alone in school, no one think he is cool.
He never studies hard, but he always gets high mark.
People think he's so strange, but he doesn't want to change.
All he need is daydreaming.
No one really knows his feeling...
