I know my angel will make it
I'll tell myself until I believe it
If you don't have faith you better fake it
There's a pain you'll feel but you can shake it
There's nothing worse than losing someone
Hey somebody
I know my angel will make it
I'll tell myself until I believe it
I've heard the crying of the dying
I helped her come back to the living
There's nothing better than saving someone
Hey somebody
I know my angel will make it
I'll tell myself until I believe it
If you don't have faith you better fake it
There's a pain you'll feel but you can shake it
There's nothing better than saving someone
It's not impossible
Hey somebody
