Messiah had a girl that swore I was the devil

He fell from heaven in Ohio

Because of a night with strippers at the Goldmine

She said you're moving out

But he was alright

You're on tour now

And that's why she's asking

How, how ya gonna make it up to me

How, how ya gonna make it up

Messiah grew a beard and let his hair go

He said I might as well

If I party with the devil

His girl back home started packing his things

She said you're moving out

And that was alright

Cause you're on tour now

And that's why she's asking

How, how ya gonna make it up to me

How, how ya gonna make it up

Messiah with the devil

Swing your hell's bells
