Where do i begin
I remember the first night we met
It was 1996 at the splash club in London
And i had a huge crush on you
Over the years ive grown to love you
For so many reasons
Manchester
Bristol
Exeter
And Nottingham
To name a few
Youve watched me bleed
Bruise
Sweat
And scream
And youve never been afraid of me
I don't blame you for what they've written about us
Or our relationship
No one really understands it
Not even me
I love it when that happens
