

My Suicide Dream "Sugar"

She sleeps, so soft and so silent
She lies with a love of her own
She sleeps with her hand on my heart
She feels the beat even in her dreams

So dance tonight like you own it
We'll conquer the present and well make it our own
Sugar slaughters all the kids on the dance floor
When there's nothing left, but to just to get away

Her eyes consume me as I look into her soul
Her body moves me with a beauty that's all her own
So take my hand sugar dance with me all night long
I love you so sugar don't ever let me go

That gorgeous smile that you try so hard to hide
You'll never know just what that does to me inside
To think we share obsessions not only of the living dead,
But of one another. That's inside of me until the end
The end of time

Stomp with me
Dance with me
The night is ours until the end of time
Stomp with me
Dance with me
Tonight is ours were on top of the world

She sleeps, so soft and so silent
She lies with a love of her own
She sleeps with her hand on my heart
She feels the beat even in her dreams
