For unlawful carnal knowledge!
You look into her magic eyes.
She can see through your disguise.
Then you know she's
The one that had you hypnotized.
And everything she touches dies.
Everything she touches dies...
Everything she touches dies...
Everything she touches dies!
The witch is burning on the hill.
They left her there for fire to kill.
You can hear her screaming still.
You can hear her screaming still!
She called her master to the bed.
Caressed him until he was fed.
Then the priest discovered what
The witch had done, and said,
"You will burn until you're dead..."
"You will burn until you're dead..."
"You will burn until you're dead..."
"You will burn until you're dead!"
The witch is burning on the hill.
They left her there for fire to kill.
You can hear her screaming still.
You can hear her screaming still!
You look into her magic eyes.
She can see through your disguise.
Then you know she's
The one that had you hypnotized.
Everything she touches dies...
Everything she touches dies...
Everything she touches dies...
Everything she touches dies!
The witch is burning on the hill.
They left her there for fire to kill.
You can hear her screaming still.
You can hear her screaming still!
For knowledge!
