(Opener):

Ive Been Running And Hiding For So Long.
Could It Be That Im Scared To Give Into Something So Strong.

I Dont Wanna Loose Myself I Dont Wanna Get Caught Up. But You Leave Me No Choice, But To Surrender To Your Love

(Verse 1):

Now that we said that I would never love again
Im dealing with a Heart that won't mend and shut down
and eventually hurtin'
Until you came around and loved the way you do You're wondering why I don't see and why I won't your love let take over me.

(Pre-Chorus):

I'm just looking for ways
To keep from fallin'
You get close every day but I just run and try to hide
I Really need to get away but I keep stallin.
And you just keep on, keep on pushing it closer to the end.

(Chorus):

Can't fall I gotta surrender
Can't stop falling like a fugitive from your love
Fugitive from your love.
From Your Love.
Times up I'm out of breath, Its too late
im caught runnin' like a fugitive from your love, fugitive
from your love

(Verse 2):

Blamed it on countless lies to see this disappointment
Somehow somehow I tend to believe that you can't heal
that part of me
Maybe you're something special making you seem unreal
So I know I'm out the way to make sure

You don't know how I really feel yeah.

(Pre-Chorus):

I'm just looking for ways
To keep from fallin'
You get close every day but I just run and try to hide

I Really need to get away but I keep stallin.
And you just keep on, keep on pushing it closer to the
end.

(Chorus):

Can't fall I gotta surrender
Can't stop falling like a fugitive from your love
Fugitive from your love.
From Your Love.

Times up I'm out of breath, Its too late
im caught runnin' like a fugitive from your love, fugitive
from your love

(Bridge):

Now you can steal it with one tender kiss so heal me
with your touch
You can mend my broken pieces and won't say that its too much
So even though I'm runnin from your love
I can't go too far, so knock me off of chains and shackles
So now my heart is what you end up with.

(Chorus): TWO TIMES

Can't fall I gotta surrender
Can't stop falling like a fugitive from your love
Fugitive from your love.
From Your Love.

Times up I'm out of breath, Its too late
im caught runnin' like a fugitive from your love, fugitive
from your love
Boy you got meâ€¦
