INTRO

Yo, this is for all of ya'll out there That ever dealt with somebody Who be lyin', fakin', cheatin', stealin', creepin', B.S.-nin'
I got this thing called the lie detector Two teaspoon and their bound to tell the truth, listen

You told me that I was your fantasy, yeah You said that we would practice monogamy So I became a freak under the sheets put his ass to sleep creeped into the kitchen got the remedy
its called the lie detector slipped it in his drink brought it to his bedside and said take a sip of this and don't think

HOOK 1

You won't believe what happened when he sipped the lie detector looked into his eyes, asked him where you been he said its no surprise cuz i been with my ex girl why ain't you tell me truth he said you don't wanna hear the truth sometimes i wish i never gave him a detector i thought he loved me, but he loved her so i'm kinda glad he took the lie detector now i know the truth, so you can get the boot

BEENIE CHORUS

man, god of to, god of to, god of to go come and tie up you, tie up you tie up yo tongue else, head ago, head ago, head ago roll when she finds out you and her friend lie down

VERSE 2

she told you baby lets get married i'll always be faithful so lets spend eternity so he became a freak under the sheets put her ass to sleep, creaped into the kitchen
slipped it in her drink brought it to her bedside
and said take a sip of this and don't think

you won't believe what happened when he gave her the lie detector looked at her pager number
