You never know what you're gonna get from day to day

I was sitting on top of the world

Never thought that would change

I had a life that dreams are made of

Had everything

And in a moment it all came crashing down

And I'll never be the same

Thought I was safe

I had made it

It couldnt happen to me

[chrous]

My bra my bra my bra my bra

My light at the end of the tunnel

My bra my bra my bra

My legs when i start to stumble

My strength, my sun, my heart

When it's just too hard to take it

When it's just to hard to make it

Through another day

You're lifting me up

My bra my bra my bra

When the going got tough you were there by my side

Telling me the things I needed to hear you went the extra mile

And I thank the heavens above for your grace

'Cause when I couldn't find my courage you gave me your faith

Your endless calls

Breaking down my walls

Being there for me endlessly

[chrous]

My bra my bra my bra my bra

My light at the end of the tunnel

My bra my bra my bra

My legs when i start to stumble

My strength, my sun, my heart

When it's just too hard to take it

When it's just to hard to make it

Through another day

You're lifting me up

My bra my bra my bra

I'm fighting, fighting

Facing all of my fears, I'm surviving, surviving

I keep fighting, fighting

Takin' it one day at a time

I keep trying, trying

Oooohhh,

Gonna make it, gonna make it

Ain't nothing gonna stop me from going on

So many reasons I gotta stay strong
