I am stronger than before
I have risen from a fall
I will break down anything in my way
Without looking back at all

I am stronger than before
Not a thing can hold me down
I will make it, I will take it
I will always be around

There is a thing that I got something
I never had before
There is a reason I've got to be everything
I am I'm sure

I have been weakened by you
For one hundred days too long
I have been broken in two
But I've never felt so strong

There is a power inside me
It's pushing now and it's not letting go
There is a feeling inside me
I'm not slowing down and it won't let me stop

Making me more than I am
Holding you where you are
And I'm reaching the top
Ain't nothing that you can do
'Cause I'm already there
And I'm not going to drop

I am stronger than before
I have risen from a fall
I will break down anything in my way
Without looking back at all

I am stronger than before
Not a thing can hold me down
I will make it, I will take it
I will always be around

I won't be broken no more
Because I'm everything I'm meant to be
It doesn't matter before
I'm changing everything 'bout me

Now I believe in myself
Not a thing can touch me now
No interest in anyone else
I'm all about making myself proud

There is a power inside me
It's pushing now and it's not letting go
There is a feeling inside me
I'm not slowing down and it won't let me stop

Making me more than I am
'Cause I'm already there

I am stronger than before
I will break down anything in my way

I am stronger than before
I will make it, I will take it

I'm not gonna drop
I'm not gonna drop
I'm not gonna stop
I'm not gonna drop
