I pledge allegiance to the flag of the mighty USA
I've closed my mind to any other way
Without choice I'll fight your wars
Give my life to save your shores
So little do we ask of you
A chance to live, can you come through

[Chorus:]

Paint with propaganda for eyes that cannot see
A picture so self-righteous it's obscene America is number one, but what a nasty web we've spun
How will we ever get our fingers clean

Cold & ancient arctic winds give way to winds of change
Perhaps a final chance to ease some of the strain
If you'd forget about tradition
And that stupid flag you wave
You might just save the world
While there's still a world to save

[Chorus]

Corruption!

[Bridge:]

Without choice I'll fight your wars
Give my life to save your shores
So little do we ask of you
A chance to live, can you come through
