I sit within the pentagram that burns upon the floor
I chant the invocation like a thousand times before
Again my master rises from the darkest depths of hell
He's asking me to kill again, I cannot break his spell

[Chorus:]

Put down your fishing cross
And let me lead the way
You feel your blood grow colder
But it's much too late to pray
My brutal wrath will now unwind
I'll strip your life away
Silent Night, Violent Night
I'll take you to the grave

Reality returns to me, again I take the blade
I must fulfill this prophecy for the deal that I have made
A butcher without mercy, I'll kill without regret I'll hunt you down relentlessly and rip your flesh to shreds

[Repeat chorus]

[Bridge:]

You feel the cold steel pierce your brain
As I slam it through your eye
A sea of blood runs down your chest
As you look unto the sky
Feel the plague of death descend
A violent end awaits
I twist the knife inside your skull
As silence overtakes

Silence overtakes
