"All My Fears"

Visit "All My Fears" on MotoLyrics.com

Confessed my faults, and seven sins
Washed my soul for good from all the pain
Finally free... from all my fears
I can see the light... once again
Paid all my dues now it's all done
The darkness of my soul, is blown away
No path to choose, no need to run
Getting out of the hole, I fly away
Confessed my faults, and seven sins
Washed my soul for good from all the pain
Finally free... from all my fears
I can see the light... once again
