We make ritual noise
We make ritual noise
We make ritual noise
We make ritual noise

We make ritual noise
We weave the fabric of dreams
We build cities of sound
We feel the rhythm of time

We make ritual noise
We weave the fabric of dreams
We build cities of sound
We feel the rhythm of time

We make ritual noise
Lie to the world underafended tips
We take special kill
Listen to the words spoke in confidence

We make ritual noise
Shouting to be heard, cooling our burning lips
We brake down the gates
Open up our wounds, bleeding for innocence

We make ritual noise
We weave the fabric of dreams
We build cities of sound
We feel the rhythm of time

We live generous lives
We have the power of will
We turn logic around
We feed the engines of change

We make ritual noise
We make ritual noise

We make ritual noise
We weave the fabric of dreams
We build cities of sound
We feel the rhythm of time

We live generous lives
We have the power of will
We turn logic around
We feed the engines of change

We make ritual noise
We weave the fabric of dreams
We build cities of sound
We feel the rhythm of time

We make ritual noise
We make ritual noise

We make ritual noise
We weave the fabric of dreams
We build cities of sound

We make ritual noise

We make ritual noise
