"The Dark Conquest"

Visit "The Dark Conquest" on MotoLyrics.com

A vision appears before my eyes
A vision where I am king... eternal
And in the backness of night
I shall conquer... I shall rise

My eyes the gleam with triumph and glory
Many battles I have fought... and won
And for centuries have I ruled as king
But still the greatest conquest is to come

I will forever seek
To dominate the weak
Oh... how they shall suffer
The anger of my hate
Byt victory will come...
Embrace the dark conquest
"Forever winter... forever night..."

A tear is shed...
For the beauty of the forevernigh
And the fallen empires
Have been purged in my triumph
Worlds have I destroyed...
Stars have I born
Dark, my kingdom is... desolate
