Visit "Discipline Misanthropy" on MotoLyrics.com

Staring through sonic glass walls, your view may seem distorted

Innovative destruction - Destructive creation

Discipline misanthropy - Arrogant turmoil

Discipline misanthropy - Master plan within

Take you down with me, you clean humanoid

Stain you!

Look at you - dirty - filthy

Low, down 'n fucking abhorrent piece of shit

Discipline misanthropy - Arrogant turmoil

Discipline misanthropy - Preservation of the elite

Discipline misanthropy - Observe machinery

Discipline misanthropy - Master plan within

Absorb the black liquid, as the stains will send off the beast

Error one - Man

Error two - Destruction of liquid

Error three - Glorifying the invisible

Strolling down devil's avenue 666

I long for satisfaction, I long for dedication

I long for determination, here is no salvation

Only extermination - Sin!

New breed - Misanthropic instinct supreme

Introduced to the world, in a Satanic audioscope
