Die!

Die under the plague

Taste it as you suffer

You are forever haunted by the Beast

Never to escape from a certain Death

Massive killings by the One, judging you to die

Turn around and face the Beast

Fear!

Fear your Doom

Crumble in Agony

Accept and Die!!!

With cold blooded skinpeeled aggression

Comes forth a Storm of Terror

A supreme force, bringing you all down

To the final massacre

And the Domain of the Superior shall rise

Above the pile of a thousand murdered
