Close your eyes, sleepy head,
Angels fly around your bed.
And they kiss tousled locks,
Gently, gently, my baby rocks.

And I will never leave your side,
Couldn't even if I tried.
There will never, ever, ever be
Another love for me.
And as the years go by
My love for you will survive.

Land of Nod, realm of dreams,
Nothing there's quite what it seems.
I'm awake through the night
Making sure your dreams turn out right.

And I will never leave your side,
Couldn't even if I tried.
There will never, ever, ever be
Another love for me.
And as the years go by
My love for you will survive.

And I will never leave your side,
Couldn't even if I tried.
There will never, ever, ever be
Another love for me.
And as the years go by
My love for you will survive.
