[Intro:]

Greetings, yo, it's mystic and this song is for everybody who ever lost anybody To a violent death - the streets, drugs, domestic violence
Who's gone through the process of the pain, the anger, and then the peace
And unfortunately, you can't ever take all the pain away but sometimes you can get Further then you thought for real believe me, this is for all the fallen angels

[Verse 1:]

When your body hit the concrete, I couldn't help but scream
Blood fowing fluid, life is but a dream
'Til a bullet takes your last breath, where the angel slept
You were received comfortably and the heavens wept Man you threw me for a loop, had me questioning exitstance
Like why I'm still living and do angels give kisses?
'Cause sometimes in the middle of the night I can feel you by my side saying let's ride
So I hug myself a little stronger, bring the pain closer Get mad at the world then once again regain composure
Closure, can't seem to find that these days Seems like everywhere I look, another soldier's laid My love you looked so peaceful wanted to give you two breaths Pump five times on your chest to break the silence that you left
Instead I paid respects, caressed your cold face Whispered you know I'll always love you with amazing grace

[Chorus:]

Fallen angels in the sky
Why must all the soldiers die?
I wanna know, I got to know

Fallen angels in the sky
Why must all the soldiers die?
I wanna know, I got to know

[Verse 2:]

Sometimes you visit in my dreams, I wake up in a sweat Trying to, catch my breath, clutching on my breast Best believe your're not forgotten, those sweet memories
Gem of a G, guess those busters couldn't see Lord please forgive them for they know not what they take Raised the stakes, twisted fate tell me who gonna take the weight
Patiently meditate, I sense your aura in my presence Killed so savagely, still there's beauty in your essence (I can feel you) you weren't the last, just the first in a succession
Of the many fallen angels I have known, confession
The pain never goes away, it only lessens The questions never stop, just learn to live in the present
Resilient I got to be so the next breath don't break me At peace within myself, so no regrets if they should take me

[Chorus]

[Verse 3:]

I say prayers for you no matter what the denomination
When I step into a house of god, there's no hesitation Drop softly to my knees under the flickers from the candles
Try to get a handle, then I speak to you My love, I hope you're doing fine Just another day around the way and you were on my mind
Take a moment to relax, gradually fade to black Give thanks and praises, and then I step back And softly, I sway silently Listen, I can hear you say goodbye to me
And it makes me smile, close my eyes and picture you Pacified for the moment when I'm that close to you True indeed, I wish you never left Still you remain in my cypher, it's all in the breath

[Chorus x2]

[vibes: spoken]

Being a women is fulfilling all the things your mother was too busy raising you, to complete

Being a women is taking all the pain and anguish you've ever felt and translating it into beauty Being a women is knowing when you're broken and finding the tools to put yourself back together again Being a women is remembering to love yourself when the man you gave everything to... Forgets
