i am the one that walks in your dreams screaming for justice you will not provide you always lie slaying the souls of people who do not know why do you do this you cowardly bastard you cannot provide what people desire lie after lie yet people believe to me you are nothing i long for you death forever in hatred
i will be stalking you soulslayer
soulslayer
severe is my punishment it shall hurt
lie your last lie as i'll crush your throat never again you will lie and deceive our kind none of my kinds needs your fake god as he does not exist (slayer of souls)
