Castle of ice, a majestic sight. Falcons, eagles and mighty ravens circling above guarding this enchanting sight built out of dreams and wishes dreams and wishes from people of the mighty land Sorcerers, finishing this bold creation see what they make gigantic demons of hate a threat to unworthy worms The wise men's chants call the wolves out of deep winter forests winter owls, arriving and two mighty goats appear to the gate they go, to defend the castle of ice
