Could it be you?
I've been searching so hard to find
Tell me how could I have been so blind
You were here all the time
(You were here all the time)
Could it be you?

You never looked as good to me
As you look tonight oh yeah
It's like I've seen you for the first time
Through a lover's eyes
How could it be that I never knew?
It's always been you that I've been looking for
You were always right here by my side, oh yeah

Could it be you?
I've been searching so hard to find
Tell me how could I have been so blind
You were here all the time, oh yeah
Could it be you?
The girl I've always had dreams about
The one I just can't live without
Is it so? Tell me now
(Please tell me)
Could it be you?

Could you imagine what it's like?
To always live without love
I need to have you in my life
I think I know that now
My open heart will make you a part
A part of this love I've been keeping
And I might just give it all to you, oh

Could it be you?
I've been searching so hard to find
Tell me how could I have been so blind
You were here all the time
Could it be you?
The girl I've always had dreams about
The one I just can't live without
Is it so? Tell me now

Every girl I meet
Though they might be sweet
They can't compare to you
So I search no more
Cause what I've been looking for
I know I've found in you

Could it be you?
I've been searching so hard to find
Tell me how could I have been so blind
You were here all the time
Could it be you?
The girl I've always had dreams about
The one I just can't live without
Is it so? Tell me now
Could it be you?
