Oh it's Christmas.. (ooh..)
I'm so glad that you came my way from a million stars you and you are
I swear your love is mine
And I somehow I knew that you were made for me
And I can't believe that my wish came true
I'll never let ya go baby
People are celebrating all throughout the world
And that's what we're gonna do tonight
Cause we've got so much,
So much love to share
Oh, it's Christmas
and we're sharing love just like we did last year
Oh, it's Christmas
And you know, I'm gonna be right here

And still my heart belongs to you and only you
Merry Christmas darlin'
Let us share the joy of love tonight
Cold winter nights may come and go
And we're still dancing slow
Can't you hear my song?
The song I sing for you (yes I sing for you)
People are celebrating all throughout the world
And that's what we're gonna do tonight
Cause we've got so much,
So much love to share
Oh, it's Christmas
and we're sharing love just like we did last year Oh, it's Christmas
And you know, I'm gonna be right here

I'm gonna be right there for you
Yes, you know by now it's true
I'm not going away no more

People are celebrating all throughout the world
And that's what we're gonna do tonight
Cause we've got so much,
So much love to share

Oh, it's Christmas
and we're sharing love just like we did last year Oh, it's Christmas
And you know, I'm gonna be right here

[SPOKEN by Lance]

And I wish you such a nice Christmas
And Merry Christmas to all
Merry Christmas to the world.
