Now my days are growing cold, all the memories unfold Thinking 'bout the friends we lost, wondering how to count the cost
Now my days are growing cold
I can hardly wait any longer, now the feeling's growing stronger Thinking 'bout the times we had, good times always turn into bad
Now my days are growing cold
Chorus:
Why don't you take me for a little while Sing me songs, you know, will make me smile
Why don't you take me for a little while
As I watch the rising sun, I see a new day just begun Thinking 'bout the sacrifice, wondering how to pay the price
Now my world is growing cold (chorus)
(Solo)
So now my days are growing cold, all my memories been told Thinking 'bout the dreams we lost, wondering how to count the cost
Now my days are growing cold
(chorus) - sing me songs, you know, will make me
make me make me smile
(chorus) - sing me songs, you know, will make me
make me make me smile
Make me smile
Why don't you take me for a little while Sing me songs, you know, will make me make me
make me smile
Somebody take me take me, won't you make me smile...
