This is a cover of Christmas Vacation by the Decendants

You were depressed
You were really messed up
You know I understand
Why did you not talk to me ?
Why don't you help me prepare for the nightmare
And then,

You took a vacation
Into oblivion
You were so low
And I felt like I didn't know you
Christmas Vacation, you took a vacation from me...

Oh oh oh
From me...
Oh oh oh

Once it ended
I mended myself
But it keeps fallin' back down
The shelves in my head
A twinge of pain now
A shudder of disgust
As I shield my eyes
From my own memory

I knew all about your plans
I really did understand
But you didn't let me know
I wasn't invited to go
Christmas Vacation, you took a vacation from me...

Oh oh oh
From me...
Oh oh oh

I watched in desperation
I you stumbled before my eyes

She needs beer, she doesn't need me
I finally realised
My anger and pain in all you fun
Didn't recognise
I stopped caring
Long before you started to cry

I knew all about your plans
I really did understand
But you didn't let me know
I wasn't invited to go
Christmas Vacation, you took a vacation from me...

Oh oh oh
From me...
Oh oh oh
From me...
Oh oh oh
From me...
Oh oh oh
