Na, na, ni

Every time me and you are on the case
You never seem to let me get a word in
You tell me things like imagine if you walked through the door
And you see me with another man you'd throw him through the curtain

I understand that you're hurtin'
But everywhere I go girls love flirtin'
I wanna let you know that I'm another person
I called and I called but it kept divertin'

See you lied and I cried, no
How am I supposed to forgive you?
Baby, you traitor
Tell me how many times did you think I'd stay?
Ay, ay

You took it all away
Why did you have to do this now?
I'm feelin' so empty, there's nothing left in me to say
But you should be here right now

I feel you within me
I'm hoping you ring me one day
(Whoa, oh, oh, oh)
You took it all away
(Whoa, oh, oh, oh)

Every time you was with another girl
You knew it was me that you'd be hurtin'
And don't pretend you don't know what I mean
'Cause through your phone baby, I've been searchin'

So now you know that it's curtains
You're the one that got with another person
Now look at me I'm the one that's flirtin'
And now when you call I just keep divertin'

See you lied and I cried, no

How am I supposed to forgive you?
Baby, you traitor
Tell me how many times did you think I'd stay?
Ay, ay

You took it all away
Why did you have to do this now?
I'm feelin' so empty, there's nothing left in me to say
But you should be here right now

I feel you within me
I'm hoping you ring me one day
(Whoa, oh, oh, oh)
You took it all away
(Whoa, oh, oh, oh)

Now I know all you ever wanted was a little bit of respect
But I'm a man and you know how we get Head in my hands, switchin' in the mirror
'Cause I never thought I'd be the one chasin' when we met

You never showed that you wanted me for the scrilla
Even though I know you love it when we fuck in the villa
Now you're so far away, nights feel like days
Got me stayin' awake so alive, I wanna kill her

Is it so hard to understand I hate living without you?
(No one's ever made me feel this low You're pushing in the knife so slow)
There you go, now you know how I felt when we were together

You took my life and turned it upside down
If only karma didn't come back around
But I guess it's over now, it's over now
It's over now

You took it all away
Why did you have to do this now?
I'm feelin' so empty, there's nothing left in me to say
But you should be here right now

I feel you within me
I'm hoping you ring me one day
(Whoa, oh, oh, oh)
You took it all away
(Whoa, oh, oh, oh)
