You use to hold me, tight all night long
You use to tell me, you'd never leave me alone
You use to kiss me, on my lips
I've never felt like this

But now you stay out
All night and, sleep all day
You're never with me, it's like you've gone away
You got something on your bloody lips, to say

I can see the writings on the wall
I won't beg, and I won't crawl
I hope you feel that you're two feet tall
Love Sucks
(Love Sucks)

It really sucks

I can see the writings on the wall
I won't beg, and I won't crawl
I hope you feel that you're two feet tall
Love Sucks
(Love Sucks)

It really sucks

I see you're hanging out with different guys
But you know this, comes as no surprise
You asked me for, one last kiss
Under the lunar eclipse

I turned you down with a stiff ass no
I'll pushed you away, but you just wouldn't go
So wipe away, those vampire tears
And make yourself disappear

I can see the writings on the wall
I won't beg, and I won't crawl
I hope you feel that you're two feet tall
Love Sucks
(Love Sucks)

It really sucks

I can see the writings on the wall
I won't beg, and I won't crawl
I hope you feel that you're two feet tall
Love Sucks
(Love Sucks)

It really sucks

I just want you, gone away
I just want you, gone away
(Life sucker)

I can see the writings on the wall
I won't beg, and I won't crawl
I hope you feel that you're two feet tall
Love Sucks
(Love Sucks)

It really sucks

I can see the writings on the wall
I won't beg, and I won't crawl
I hope you feel that you're two feet tall
Love Sucks
(Love Sucks)

It really sucks

You use to hold me, tight all night long
You use to tell me, you'd never leave me alone
You use to kiss me, on my lips
I've never felt like this
